

Pima Federal Credit Union
IMPACT Youth Scholarship 2010

Congratulations to the 3 recipients of Pima Federal Credit Union's IMPACT Youth Scholarship awards! In April, applicants submitted scholarship applications, including an essay outlining financial literacy, personal accomplishments and goals and letters of recommendation. Applications were carefully reviewed by the Pima Federal Credit Union IMPACT Team and the three winners were selected. The scholarship recipients were enthusiastic and thoughtful in their responses and showed great insight into the importance of financial literacy. Scholarship recipients, all Pima Federal Credit Union members, include:

1st place winner $2,500
Benjamin Dicken
Homeschooled, Tucson AZ

Benjamin was homeschooled up until age 14 when he began taking classes part time at Pima Community College. He is an active volunteer with his church and a member of the honors society Phi Theta Kappa. By this summer will have completed his Associates Degree in Liberal Arts from Pima Community College. Benjamin will be attending the University of Arizona in the fall and will be studying for his Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science with a minor in Communication. Congratulations Benjamin!

2nd place winner $1,500
Holly Burnham
Round Valley High School, Eager AZ

Holly is an excellent student and is the Treasurer of the National Honor Society at her school. She is also a member of her school's Choir Council, Ambassadors Program and Varsity Soccer Team. Holly will be attending Eastern Arizona College to work towards her Associates Degree and will then transfer to the University of Arizona to obtain her Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education with a minor in Music. Congratulations Holly!

3rd place winner $1,000
Joshua Albertson
BASIS High School, Tucson AZ

Joshua is a dedicated student and has taken multiple Advanced Placement courses throughout high school, earning the title of "AP Scholar with Distinction" from the AP College Board. He is a member of his school's National Honor Society and swim team. Joshua will be attending the University of Arizona and will be majoring in Pre-Pharmacy. Congratulations Joshua!
